

Morrón 2011

Denomination: D.O. Alicante

Vintage: 2011

Grape Variety: 100% Garnacha.

Alcohol content: 13,5°

Received Awards:

Average Production: 2.500 bottles

First Vintage: 2.011

Vineyard:

Location: Finca Usaldón (Villena-Alicante) "Pago del Morrón".

Type of soil: Calcareous covered with a great amount of stones and pebbles.

Crop Type: Organic, not herbicides, no synthesis products, biological control.

Average age of vines: 50 years.

Average Altitude: 700/730 mts.

Vineyard size: 2.5 Ha.

Special characteristics: Geologic Soil originated by granite rock decomposition, low organic materials.

Wine making process:

Time of harvest: September 2011, collected manually in boxes of 15 kgs.

Fermentation: 50 days of Alcoholic Fermentation in open French oak barrel of 300 liters, whole clusters without de-stemming. After pressed in vertical screw press and after malolactic in French oak barrel of 500 liters and 225 liters of 2-4 years age.

Ageing: 12 months in French oak barrel of 500 liters and 225 liters of 2-4 years age. Not rackings.

Bottling: September/2012

Others specialties: Vinified without addition of SO2 (Sulfur), yeasts of its vineyard, not enzymes, not bacteria, not clarified and unfiltered.

Release: November / 2012

Wine Description:

Colour: Bright Pale Pink, lower layer.

Bouquet: Rich tasting fresh fruit, varietal, deep and damp forest, wet stones, lichen, Fruity, Flowery and Mineral. Seducer.

Taste: Soft and elegant tannins, sharpness and long taste, wild cherry, ripe, strawberries and raspberries, withered blue and white flowers. Saline and with spice. Soft, light and deep.

Evolution: Till 12 años.

Available bottle size: 75cl.

Pairings: Oriental cuisine, pizza and cheese. Gourmet Wine.

Tasting notes: verema.com.

Further information:

Cultivation system: Conducting in "glass system", short pruning, grapes cultivated in extremely dry climate.

Total acidity: 6.3 gr/L (tartaric acid);

Content sugar: 2.8 gr/L

pH level: 3.23

Serving temperature: 15/16°

Type of glass: Burgundy or similar.